Who can enroll at ASU Prep South Phoenix High School?
We are currently enrolling grades 8-12 at our South Phoenix PCA High School campus. In order to enroll as a 9th grader, you must have documentation that you have completed, or on track to complete 8th grade.

What is the enrollment process?
Click here to visit for the 2018-19 school year. All enrollment paperwork is available online.

Is there a fee or tuition for attending?
ASU Prep Academy South Phoenix PCA High School is a tuition-free charter school.

What is the school schedule?
The school day starts at 8:00 a.m. and ends at 3:30 p.m. Monday-Friday with opportunities for tutoring and extracurricular activities each day after school.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.

Is transportation to the high school provided to students?
ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School does not currently offer transportation for the 2018-19 school year.

Are teachers at ASU Prep highly qualified?
Yes. All teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. They have demonstrated proficiency in their content area through course taking and as a member of the ASU Prep team, teachers take 24 hours of specialized training per year. In addition, all faculty are highly qualified in their content area and engage in professional development opportunities each school year.

What is the curriculum used at ASU Prep?
ASU Prep uses the Cambridge International Curriculum. The program is aligned to the Arizona College and Career Ready standards, preparing all students to be college ready. Students also have the opportunity to take ASU Online courses and support their university preparation.

Where is the school located?
The ASU Prep South Phoenix PCA High School is located at 4445 S. 12th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85040.